It was...

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity,...

...it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair,

we had nothing before us, we had everything before us, we were all going direct to Heaven, we were all going direct the other way...

Charles Dickens

Sometimes, you know, one feels like having a friend at one's side, and, I suppose, I was longing for a friend.

BREAKING NEW GROUND

LIQUID LUNCH
A WORLD HARVEST

Whiteness, all night from the black sky unfeathering Had changed the world's name, and maybe
My own, or maybe it was all only A dream I was having, but did not Know it, or maybe the truth was that I, Huddling tight in the blankets and darkness and self, Was nothing, was nothing but what
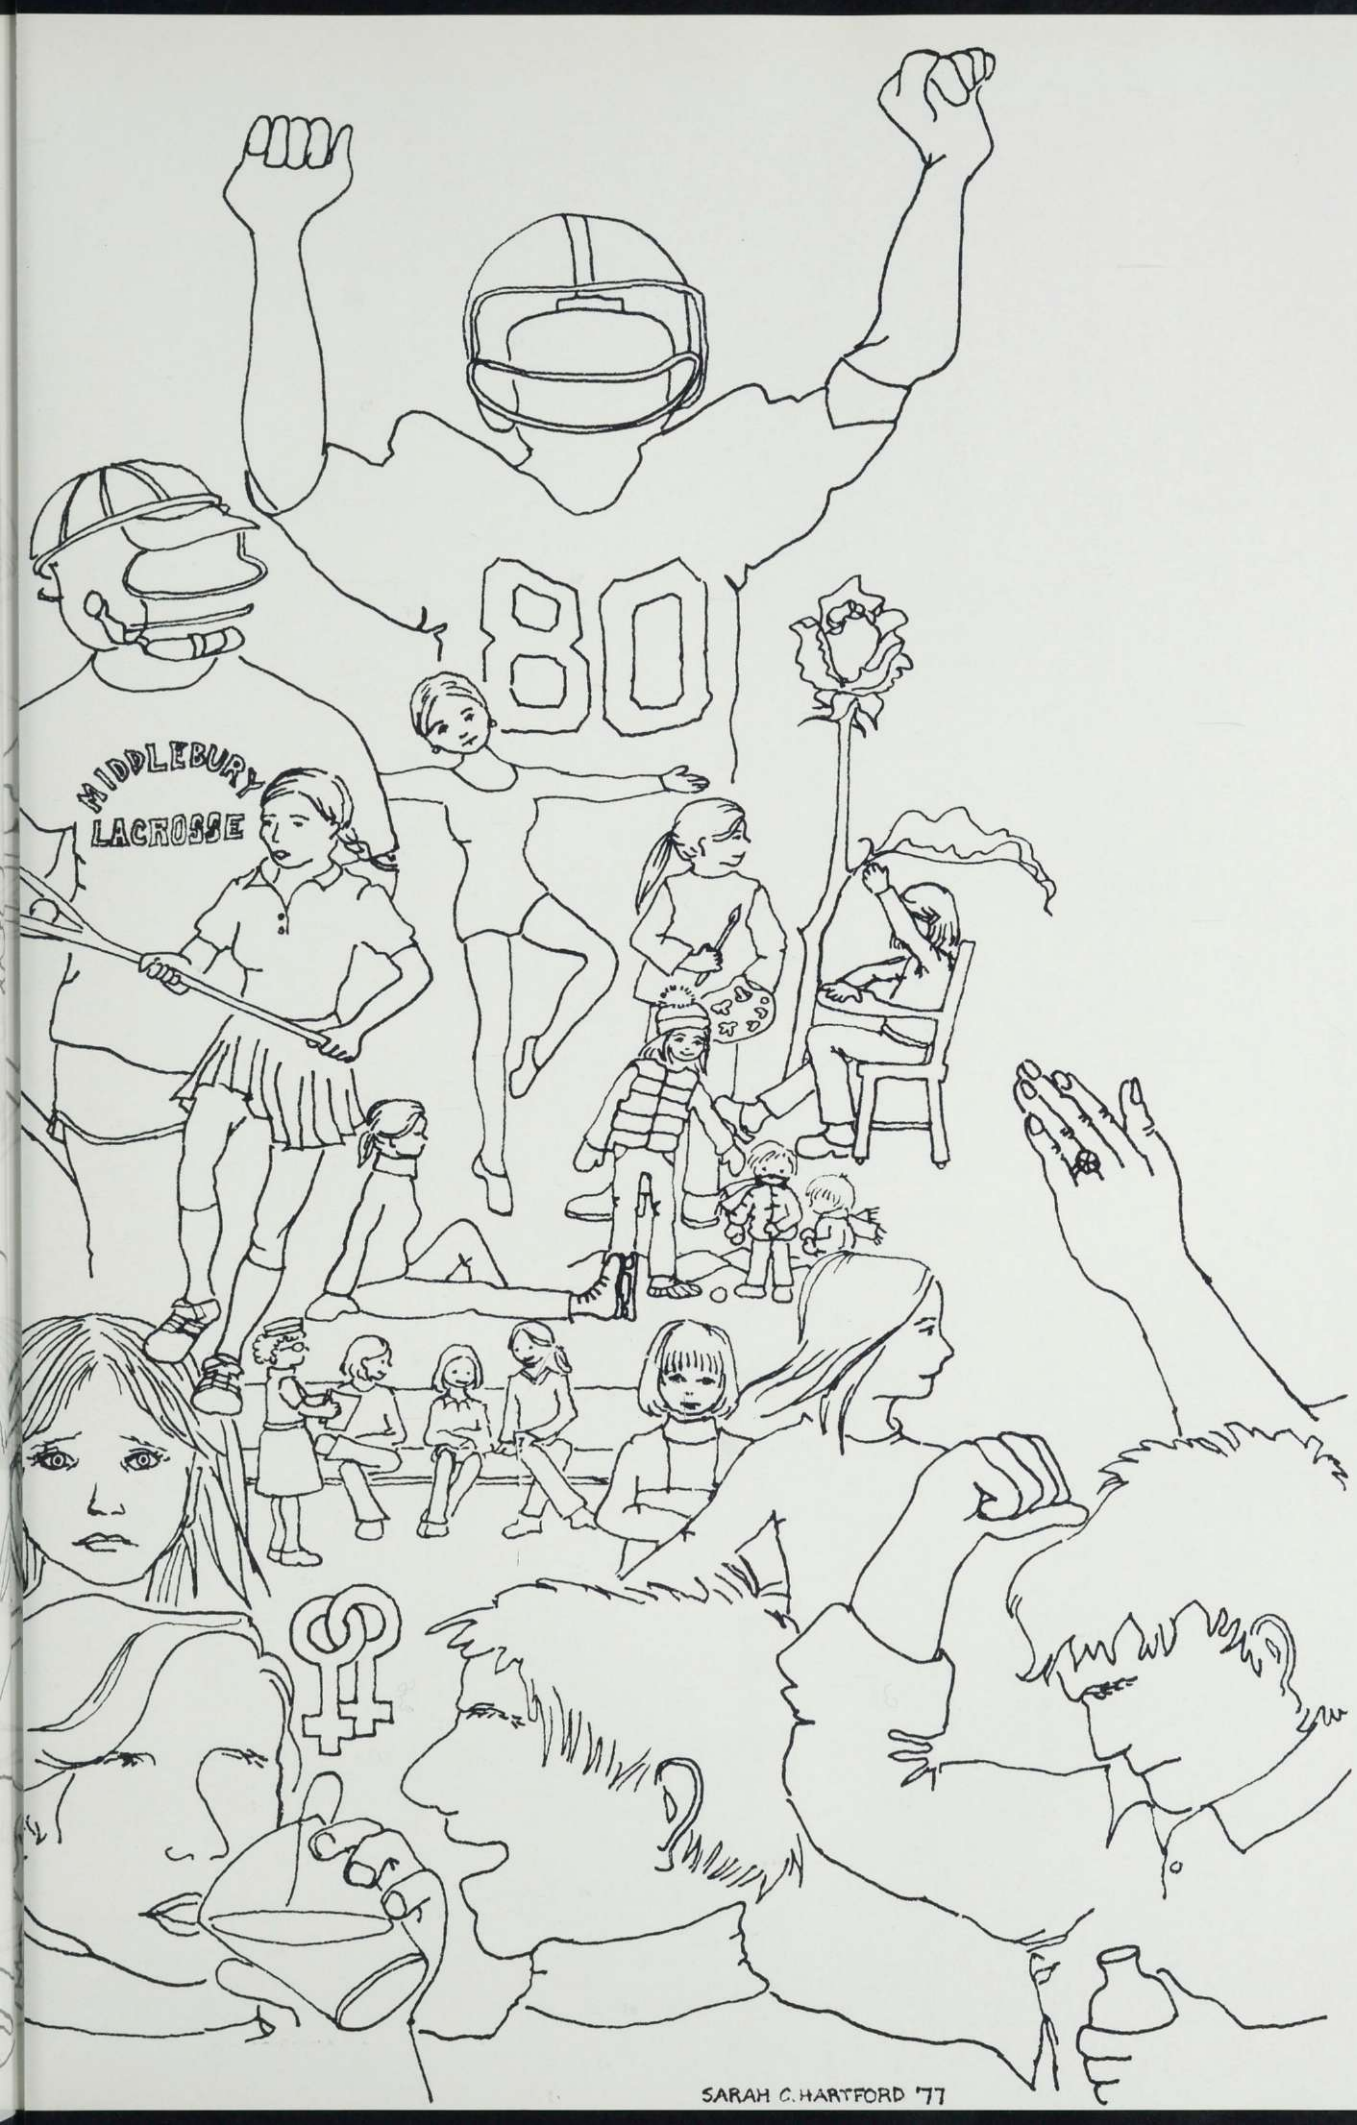
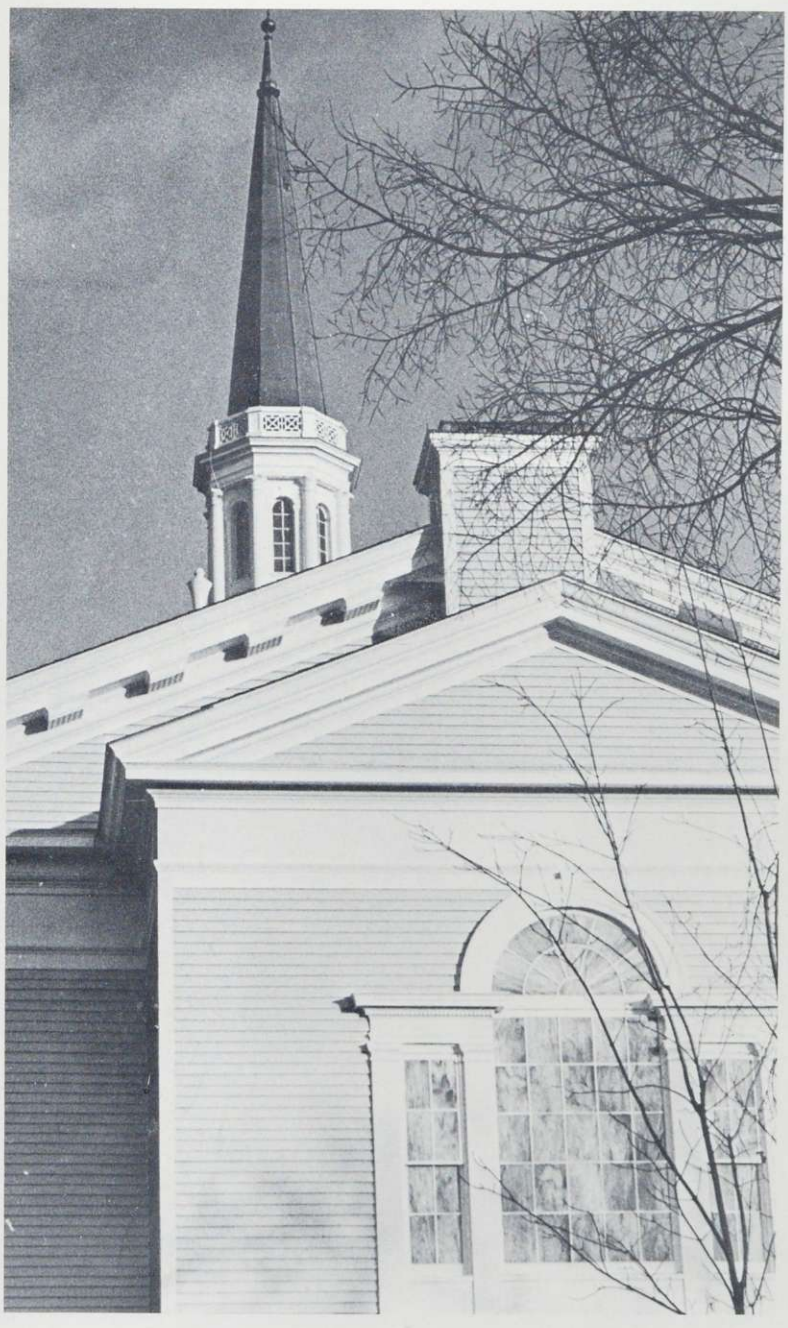
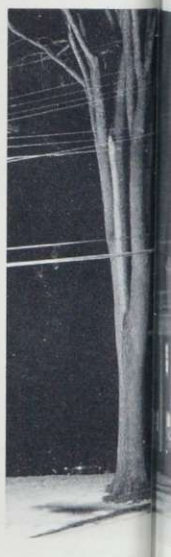
The snow dreamed all night.
Then light.



SARAH C. HARTFORD '77





While civilization has been improving our houses, it has not equally improved the men who are to inhabit them.

...the mere rent of a student's room, which is only a little larger than my own, is thirty dollars each year, though the corporation had the advantage of building thirty-two side by side under one roof, and the occupant suffers the inconvenience of many and noisy neighbors, and perhaps a residence in the fourth story. ... I think that it would be BETTER THAN THIS, for the students, or those who desire to be benefited by it, even to lay the foundations themselves.... "But," says one, "you do not mean that the students should go to work with their hands instead of their heads?" I do not mean that exactly, but I mean something which he might think a good deal like that; I mean that they should not PLAY life, or STUDY it merely, while the community supports them at this expensive game, but earnestly live it from beginning to end. How could youths better learn to live than by at once trying the experiment of living.

Henry David Thoreau

This restless succession of individuals and peoples, who exist for a time and then disappear, presents to us a universal thought,
a category:
that of change in general.
